

And when at last they found him,
In the temple talking (sports, baby, Scripture, big,)
With the teachers of the law,
Well, that made quite a (look, picture, story;)

For the teachers there had never seen
A boy of such great (looks, fame, knowledge, skin;)
A boy with wisdom, wit and skill,
Who'd never even been to (Spain, college, jail, China.)

His parents were quite angry,
When they finally found him (out, eating, there;)
In the Temple tralking Torah,
Like he didn't have a (dime, pet, pal, care.)
"You mean you couldn't find me?
You mean you really didn't know,
That I'd go to my father's house . . .
Why, where else would I go?"

Kidsword

Christmas Week 2, Year C

Luke 2:41-52

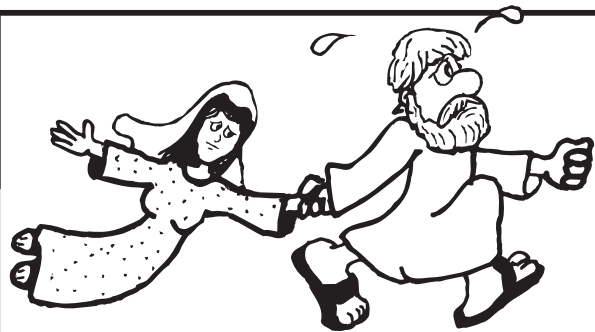

January 5, 2025

Circle the correct words at the end of the rhyming lines.

When Jesus was a boy of twelve,
He gave his parents quite a (walrus, scare, meal, scream)
One day when Mary looked for him,
She couldn't find him (out, hair, in anywhere.)

He was as gone as gone can be,
His parents wept with (tissue, willows, time, fear,)
And they cried, "Jesus, please come home!"
Hoping he would (hear, near, sing, go.)

They looked and looked and looked for him
 Like mice in search of (pasture, cheeses, meaning, bread, art;)
 They asked each person that they met,
 "Have you seen a boy named (Ed, Bart, Jesus, Frank, Art?)"

Take them through each area and unscramble the letters in the words there

EW
 NDTO'
 OKNW
 EEHWR
 EH SH!

M'I
 OLOIGNK
 ORF YM
 OYB!

VHEA
 OUY
 NESE
 EUSSJ?

ROSRY
 UTB I
 VHEA
 OTN
 EENS
 MIH.

PNOE, EW VAHE TON RNU NTIO MHI

'SEH VEWTFE YRESA LDO

TO JERUSALEM

